Kirkoswald, Cumberland Baptisms – Database: familysearch.org England, Births and Christenings, 1538-1975

The village, civil parish and former market town of Kirkoswald lies in the Lower Eden Valley of Cumbria, formerly Cumberland. The village's name means Church of St Oswald and the parish church is dedicated to Saint Oswald, King of Northumbria. The body of Oswald is believed to have been taken through the village. It includes the nearby village of Renwick and the hamlets of Staffield, High Bankhill, Parkhead and Scales, however, from 1866 to 1934 Renwick and Staffield were separate civil parishes.
